5 INVESTIGATIONS

The liquidators have completed their investigations into the books, records and affairs of the company. The accounting process and transactions that resulted in the company having an overdrawn shareholder current account in John Curtis Developments Limited (In Liquidation) were reviewed. At the completion of the review it was decided that there was nothing that could be pursued that would lead to a benefit for the creditor.

No other matters were identified that could be pursued for the benefit of the creditor.

6 COMPLETION OF LIQUIDATION

The liquidation of the company is now complete. The company is ready to be removed from the New Zealand Register (“the register”).

7 REMOVAL OF COMPANY FROM THE REGISTER

The liquidators have given public notice pursuant to Section 320(4) of the Act of the intention to remove the company from the register.

The attention of all creditors or shareholders is drawn to Section 321 of the Act which provides that any person may send to the Registrar of Companies, not later than the date specified in the notice, an objection to the removal on any one or more of the following grounds:

- (a) That the company is still carrying on business or there is other reason for it to continue in existence; or
- (b) That the company is party to legal proceedings; or
- (c) That the company is in receivership, or liquidation, or both; or
- (d) That the person is a creditor, or a shareholder, or a person who has an undischarged claim against the company; or
- (e) That the person believes that there exists, and intends to pursue, a right of action on behalf of the company under Part 9 of the Act; or
- (f) That, for any other reason, it would not be just and equitable to remove the company from the New Zealand register.

Note: Section 321(2) of the Act provides that a claim by a creditor or a shareholder or any other person against a company is not an “undischarged claim” if a receiver or liquidator has notified that person that the company has no surplus assets.

The date by which objections must be lodged with the Registrar is Friday, 26 May 2017.
